I lived in Bethesda girls home in Hattiesburg Mississippi. I was placed there to cover up a crime of incest and rape. They sold my baby. It was hell on earth and still haunts me to this day!

Because I was abused when I was a young child and my son was at Freedom Village and he was abused there also and Pastor Brothers when he spoke about it to me he blamed my husband as doing the same thing with our son. When I approached my husband he told me that wasn't true. To be honest I don't understand why Pastor Brother's didn't talk to the both of us.

i am a 28 year old woman. I lost my whole childhood, and teenage years do to Severe abuse at Freedom Village. I was in a "christian" home for troubled teens. Never did drugs, always respectful, but my parents sent me there because i was depressed. my parents didnt know how to handle it so they sent me. I endured months of Abuse , when i got kicked out for being suicidal due to the abuse , my parents sent me to another home for troubled teens. This time i spent 15 months there....i was abused severly once again. These things are so common that i ended up in 3. Now i have a hard time functioning. none of the school credits counted so i dont have an education now either. I now face complex trauma everyday. I have fugue states (i dissociate and end up places where i dont know how i got there) and i also have diccociative amnesia. (i can loose hours or even days at a time where i dont remember anyrhing) i have a hard time functioning everyday. this happened about 14 years ago and im still trying to get back up on my feet. I dont ever , ever want any child to ever even be close to exsperiencing the same. I am not ok with any other child suffering because we are to lazy to try and protect them. we owe them at least a chance of being safe. If we can avoid another xhild from facing the same pain , why wouldnt we ?

terrors that when I awake there will be strangers ready to take me back to that awful place. I still feel broken inside and like I'm trapped in this place for life. I don't want anyone else to feel this way.

The WWASP programs need to be shut down in all forms. I was a "student" in 2004/2005 and experienced and witnessed some awful things that still bring me PTSD and years of therapy to cope. The Pullin brothers need to be held accountable.

I'm a first hand witness to how brutal and destructive these prison camps are. The sooner justice can be served the better, for all of society- but the torture inflicted upon so many of us for so many years needs restorative justice as well, served retroactively.

Though I wasn't in a wwasp program, I was in another therapeutic boarding school with similar practices. I and my friends have dealt with PTSD, newfound or increased drug addiction, and the death of one of our classmates. These awful and torturous places should never have existed in the first place and need to be shut down ASAP.

When i was at sky view i broke my bone i my finger. I wrote 2 medical request in one week. One week later another girl injured herself . This girl came from a richer family. I was her buddy to the doctors appointment. I spote up to the doctor about my broken finger. He verified it was broken, gave me a finger brace and sent me back to skyview with my buddy who recives an arm brace for nearly the same injury. A few days later the owner of the skyview facilitie invited me to his personal home with no buddie to ask if i was ok or if o was going to presue leagle action. I was 15 years old. This was 2006 ish

Cross creek Academy (changed to youth foundation's academy during my stay) has made social interaction almost impossible and I have lost my ability to trust as a result. PTSD also makes it difficult to get a good nights rest. I spoke out to my school counselor about things going on at home and this school harboured me so that I could not speak with CPS.
